13. EXTRA-CURRICULAR AND COMMUNITY AFFAIRS.

MAJ Ntabakuze was an outstanding ambassador for his country. As the first representative from his country to attend the Command and General Staff College, he provided the school and the community a very positive image of his nation. He gave many formal and informal presentations on Rwanda which were done very professionally. He was a very active participant in all of the International program events. His representation has earned respectful insight and many new friends for his homeland.

14. COMMENTS.

a. Student Performance:

(1) Academic Achievement: MAJ Ntabakuze's academic achievement was excellent. He consistently applied himself to the academic requirements and exerted significant efforts to master the English language in his studies. He was a dependable contributor in the tasks assigned his staff group. His research was thorough, his thoughts well organized, and his presentations were articulate and professionally presented.

(2) Electives and Other Training: MAJ Ntabakuze enrolled in very demanding courses focused on expanding his knowledge of tactical operations and leadership skills. His instructors were impressed with his intelligent comprehension of complex concepts and his enthusiastic participation in group discussions.

(3) Significant Strengths and Weaknesses: MAJ Ntabakuze displayed particular knowledge and expertise in light infantry and brigade operations. He is a highly competent and skilled leader who demonstrates the potential for future assignments of increased responsibility, authority and rank.
