SUBJECT: Assistance for RWANDAN Refugees

In view of the Presidential direction to the Secretary of Defense that the Department of Defense will support relief operations for RWANDAN refugees, all appropriations available for operations of the Department of Defense are available for carrying out the relief operations for RWANDAN refugees.

The transportation of humanitarian relief supplies provided by other nations for RWANDAN refugees is considered to be a directed mission of the Department of Defense. Appropriate accounts and appropriations provided to the Department of Defense for its operations are available for payment of costs associated with the transportation of humanitarian relief supplies for RWANDAN refugees.

Funding policy governing transportation costs of the Department of Defense for contingency operations and humanitarian efforts are contained in the DoD Comptroller memorandum of July 28, 1994.
